Reviver CBD Set To Relieve Serious Pain As MMA Titans Clash at TITAN FC 54 Live from Miami on UFC Fight Pass, UFC Boss Dana White to Attend

This is Big. As the assassins of MMA continue to impress in the Titan FC organization, the world, and none other than UFC boss himself, Dana White will converge upon deep South Florida at the Xtreme Action Park, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, April 26th, 2019. May we all survive to tell.

It's true, and we asked the man himself, Titan FC founder and president, Lex McMahon and he had this to say: "It's all lead to this. Our founding, our commitment—all of us—everyone involved." He continued "This is what we set out to do, and we're on our way. Kudos to all involved from Dana White on down. We have the fight in us and we're here to execute and entertain on the world's highest stage."

And on the threshold of greatness also comes Reviver CBD, leading the charge for premium CBD Oil just as President Trump's signing of the US Farm Bill legalizes the long-awaited distribution of CBD Oil for those in need of pain relief. Partner Mike Long says "This is a perfect marriage. Pain. And pain relief. Simple as that. We are so glad that Titan FC has accepted ReviverCBD.com as a partner/sponsor in these early days of the CBD awakening."

Everyone involved agrees that PAIN is the central focus in all that they bring together. To add some distant perspective from knowledgeable and notable figures in our history: "There are no gains without pains." Who said that? Benjamin Franklin, a few hundred years back. And: "Pain is inevitable. Suffering is optional." Source? A Buddhist Proverb dating back a thousand years.

And now, the excitement is building in South Florida each day, as committed and amazing fighters are added to the card. We have a co-main event, with Soares vs Hutchinson for the World Featherweight Championship alongside Alves vs Douglas for an interim lightweight championship. It's war in the 'glades. Also featured are a featherweight bout of Gomez vs Burns and clashing middleweight terrors in Fortuna vs Michailidis.

As partnerships go, this one is forged in fire and speaks to the future of pain relief. Mike Long met us ringside at the last TITAN match and had this to say: "THIS is what we're all about. Competition brings pain. I've spent a continues lifetime enjoying sports. Wrestling, lifting, spartan events and more. This comes with a load of pain. My son, also a partner in Reviver CBD, Cannon Long, has made me proud as a wrestler, mma fighter and amazing competitor. As much as pain hurt me, his pain hurt me more. And there has never been a path for pain relief that didn't come with negatives. That's why we are leading the charge for CBD oil."

So as the world looks on, Titan FC will present the very best MMA fighters in a special presentation for Titan FC 54, with the big boss Dana White sitting ringside. It's all on UFC Fight Pass and fight fans are in for a treat.

While fighters on the card can expect the devastating damage that high-stakes UFC fights always bring, perhaps they will recover faster, and enjoy a pain-relief alternative with Reviver CBD Oil—the best of the best—in their corner.

"While we're waiting on the future, where scientific tests can validate the untold benefits of CBD now that it has been legalized, our team at Reviver CBD is bringing the CBD Oil option to those most in need of our product. And we're in the center of the ring. It's Just BIG. It's a moment in time. That's all we can say for now, but we let the athletes around us, and their choice speak for us. It's very rewarding." says Mike Long.

Tickets and limited sponsorship opportunities are still available at www.titanfighting.com.
